SUNSPASH 2011

IT'S BACK AND IT WILL BE EVEN BETTER THAN THE FIRST TIME. BE THERE!

August 11-14, 2011.

Following on from the success of the first Sunsplash Gasshuku in 2008, the event planned for 2011 will be even better.

Just go and ask the people that went. Just go and have a look at the photos from the event. You will want to go as well and not miss out.

SUN, TRAINING, PLEASURE PARKS AND A FREE BAR

There are many attractions in Orlando: huge theme parks, plenty of sun, all the bars and restaurants along International Drive, and the shopping.

Ultimately we will all be there for the training but you can also turn your trip into a fantastic holiday.

Sunsplash Gasshuku

Shiomitsu Sensei, 9th Dan Hanshi, will be instructing over the four days.

Training is from 9am till 12 noon. Plenty of time to visit the parks, shop and eat.

There will be a trip to the beach.

All kinds of food and restaurants to suit everyone's tastes.

There will be Wado friends from around the world there. Last time there were Americans, Canadians, Australians, English, Scottish and Norwegians.

Bring the KWAGs, that means Karate Wives And Girlfriends!

This is the best way to combine training and holiday.

HOTEL

We will have a group booking at the Embassy Suites Hotel on International Drive. The hotel boasts a great breakfast bar and free drinks during their Happy Hour.

THEME PARKS

You have the world's best parks there: Disney World, Universal, Seaworld, Busch Gardens and so on. Something for the whole family.

A GREAT VENUE

Orlando is a great place to meet up with the worldwide Wado family. See you all there.
